

Civil War Journal

Look through the Civil War resources. What people, places and things interest you? Complete the chart below by generating a list of at least five interesting topics in each category. Then circle the one person, place and thing you would like to include in your research. You may include other topics, but these will be the focal points of your journal entries.

People	Places	Things
My Person	My Place	My Thing

