Obsession and Poe

English 7

Winter

Edgar Allan Poe creates characters who have obsessions that make them do dreadful things. The narrators in "The Tell-Tale Heart" and "The Black Cat" share obsessions, and even carry out and conceal their crimes in similar ways. Using the Two Panda format, discuss the connections found in these stories. What common threads run through both stories and brand them as Poe's?

Your paper will not be graded if it contains:

- errors in capitalization
- errors in story punctuation
- font larger than 12

Write common threads in the box and choose for which you can create and support the best argument.
