

Kim's actions in Paul Fleischman's Seedfolks were intended to change her life. No one would have thought that her presence in the vacant lot could have changed so many.

THE TASK: Choose two characters from the novel, and show how the garden changed their lives.

Be sure to include:

- the author's name and the title of the novel, properly punctuated
- specific details from the book to support your ideas
- new vocabulary from the novel
- varied sentence structure that makes your writing interesting

Put your fingerprints in your writing by using descriptive language and voice.

Your essay will consist of four organized paragraphs:

Introduction:
Paragraph 1

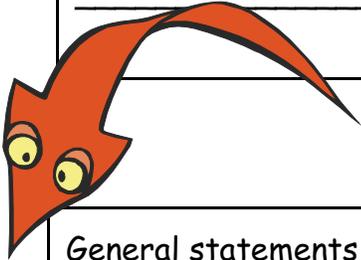

General statement(s) about change:

---

---

---

---

General statements about this novel and change; include title and author (2 sentences)

---

---

---

---

---

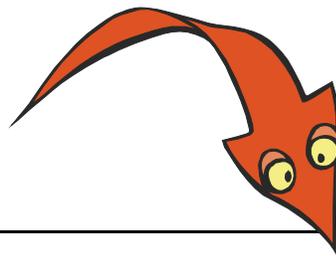

---

---

---

---

---

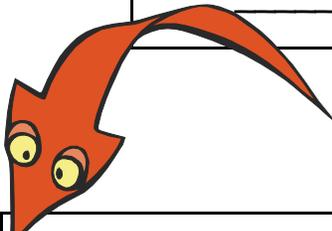

Name two people who came to the garden and changed:

- _____
- _____

First BODY paragraph:

Paragraph # 2- Character # 1

Background information about this character:

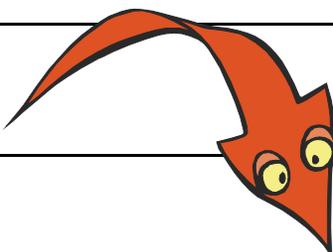

---

---

---

---

---

What this character brings to the garden:

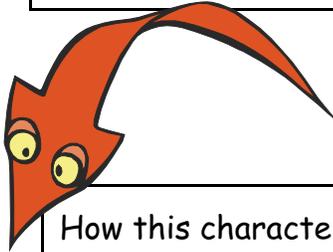

---

---

---

---

---

How this character changes because of the garden - give at least two specific examples from the novel:

---

---

---

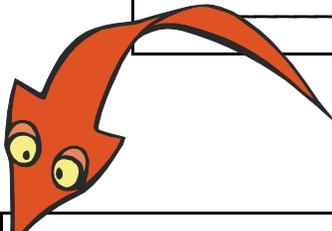

---

---

---

Second BODY paragraph:

Paragraph # 3- Character # 2

Background information about this character:

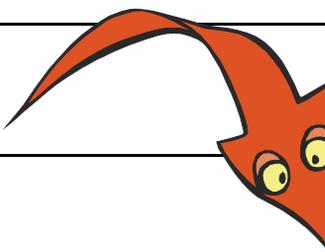

---

---

---

---

---

What this character brings to the garden:

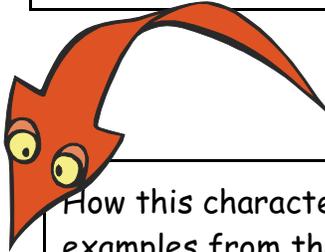

---

---

---

---

---

How this character changes because of the garden - give at least two specific examples from the novel:

---

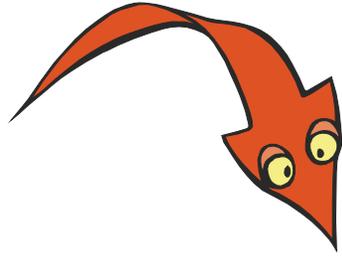

---

---

---

---

Conclusion

Both _____ and _____ changed their lives by coming to the garden.

Now, with fresh new words, state how they changed by becoming a part of the community garden.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

