You have been asked to say a few words at a School Board meeting about Mark Twain. The Board has given you this organizer to make sure that you discuss certain issues about the enigmatic author. You want to impress the Board. Make sure you complete each task to the best of your ability. You may use your web quest guide to help you fill in the information. Good luck!

|  | aooai Mark | e /wacn | prove | he was uniq |
|---------|--------------------|---------|-----------|-------------|
|         |                |         |           |             |
|         |                |         |           |             |
|         |                    |         |           |             |
|         |                |         |           |             |
|         |                    |         |           |             |
|         |                    |         |           |             |
|         |                |         |           |             |
|         |                |         |           |             |
|         |                |         |           |             |
|         |                    |         |           | E           |
|         |                    |         | 7         |             |
|         |                    |         |           | 1 1         |

|    | Tell three things about Mark Twain's home that prove he was a | ruccessful: |
|----|---|-------------|
| 1. |   |             |
|    |   |             |
|    |   |             |
| 2. |   |             |
|    |   |             |
|    |   |             |
| 3  |   |             |
| ·  | _   |             |
| ·  |   |             |

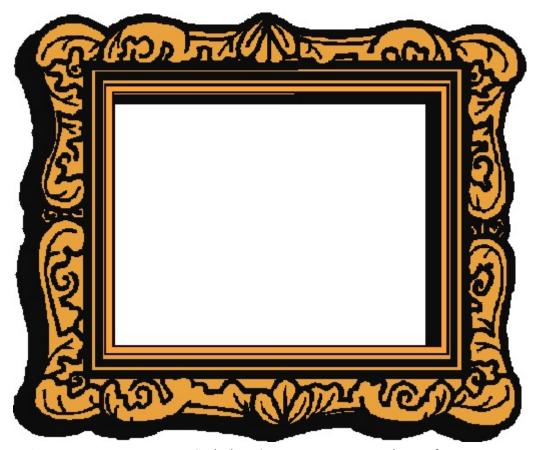

Draw a picture or symbol that represents this information.

Write three details about Hannibal, Missouri. Be sure to include how Mark Twain used his experiences and acquaintances in his stories.

|  |  |  |
|------|------|--|
|  |  |  |
|      |      |  |
|      |      |  |
|      |      |  |
|      |      |  |
|  |      |  |
|  |      |  |
|      |      |  |
|  |      |  |
|      |  |  |

Draw a picture or symbol that best represents this information.