

Punctuation Maze

Complete the maze by following the correctly punctuated sentences. If a box contains incorrect punctuation, it is like a wall of the maze. You cannot go through it. The correct path to the finish will take you through 10 boxes.

Start

My cat is cute, sweet, and smart.

My dog is big, and brawny.

It's windy, and cold outside.

I'd like salad rice, and milk.

His shirt has red blue and gray stripes.

Bring your books, paper, and pens.

How, when, and why did you come?

The worker was sweating, panting, and groaning.

Meg, Mandy, and Min met my Mom.

This path seems too easy too obvious, and too short.

I am both wary, and suspicious of shortcuts.

The teacher was both sweet, and strict.

Your work was thoughtful, wise, and successful.

At meals I never whistle, or yodel.

Finish

Patience, work, and skill will be rewarded.

This maze has been long, hard, and challenging.

You can't jump, climb, or slip to the finish.

This path is also blocked, and misleading.

The movie was short, exciting, and scary.

I hope I wish, and I beg for this to be right.